Build to Rent: The Transformative Value of Investing in Homes and Communities

The UKAA Annual Build to Rent
Conference & Awards Celebration 2023
Sponsorship & Exhibition Packages

Thursday 2nd November 2023
Etc.Venues, 133 Houndsditch, London, EC3A 7BX

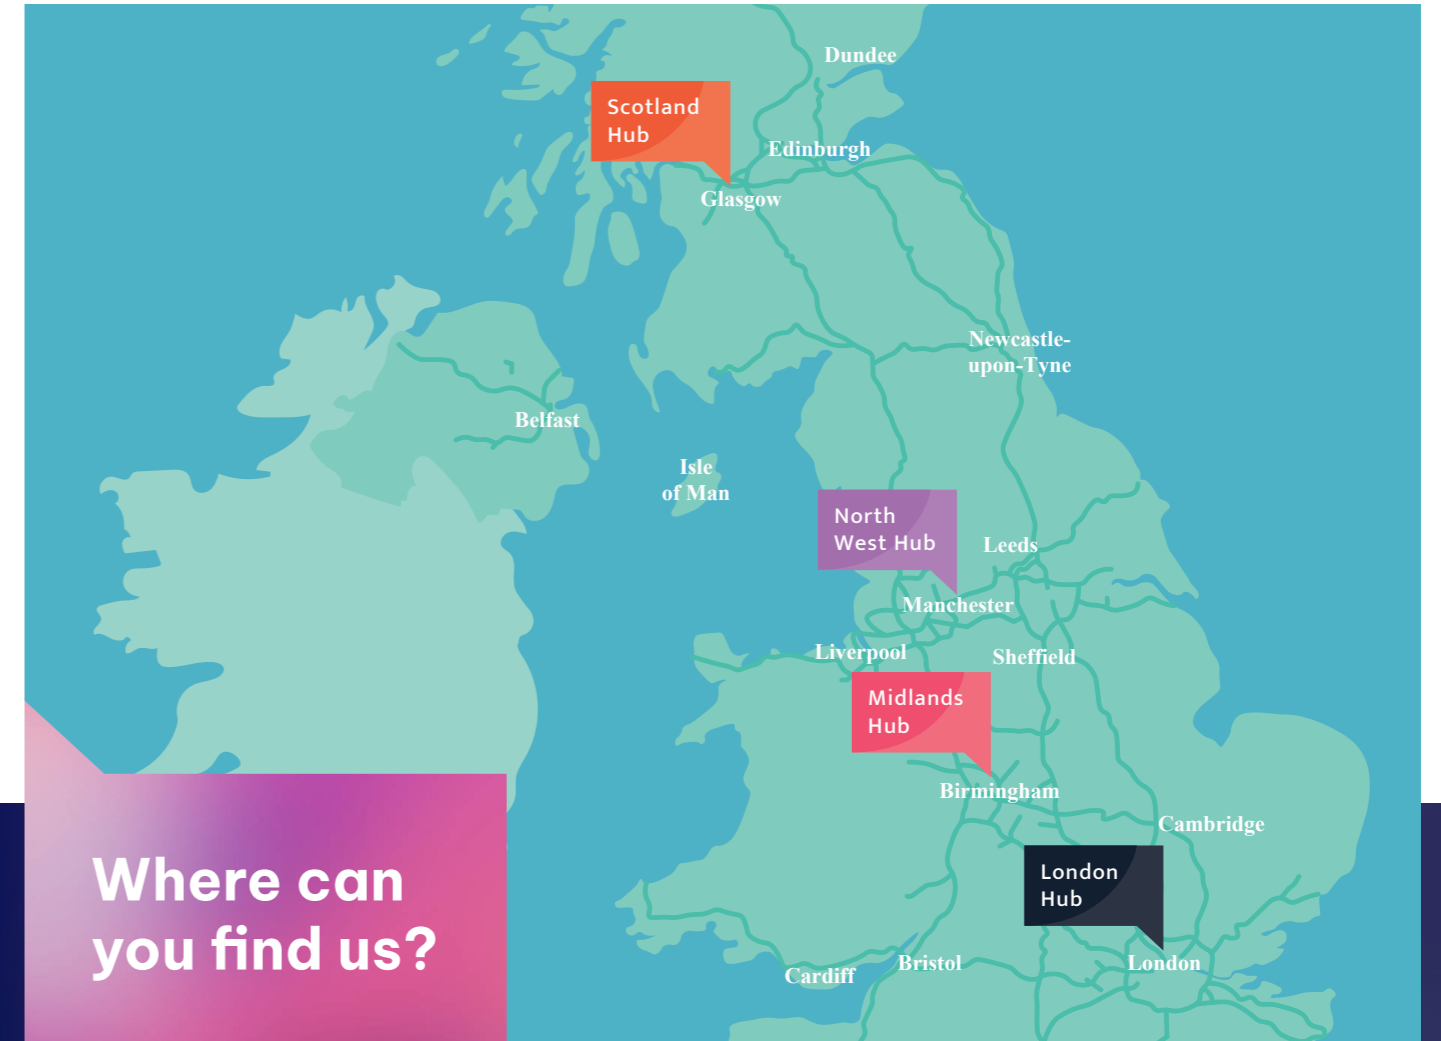

“ Build to Rent has firmly established itself within the UK, growing more rapidly than any other housing sector and consistently raising the standards of residential real estate.

This year's Conference theme 'BTR: The transformative value of investing in homes & communities', puts the inherent value proposition of BTR front and centre. The UKAA Annual BTR Conference will address the key issues facing BTR and its drive to demonstrate the highest standards.

Focusing on the trinity of investment value, customer value and social value, the 2023 UKAA Annual BTR Conference & Awards will explore the real value of BTR on homes and communities across the UK, showcase best practice, provide a platform for knowledge sharing and enable future-thinking dialogue.

We invite you to be a key part of this forward-looking conference and welcome all those who believe in building better: building BTR.

Brendan Geraghty, CEO, UKAA ”
