

Becoming a member of the ARL

The benefits of joining the Association for Rental Living

“ Welcome to the ARL,
the membership organisation for the burgeoning UK Build to Rent (BTR) industry.

We're on a mission to make BTR an industry of choice for property professionals and a lifestyle of choice for customers.

We are committed to growing BTR nationwide and our members' businesses faster than would happen otherwise through sharing high quality knowledge, promoting best practice and raising standards to benefit customers.

ARL activities help reduce risks for investors, developers and operators and assist providers of services and products to enter and operate successfully in the BTR market.

Our members are creating the rental communities of today and tomorrow.

Join us in shaping the future of BTR. ”

The ARL is the authority on BTR in the UK and our membership share in this high value knowledge.

Our members are drawn from investors and lenders, developers and operators, and all those designing, delivering and supplying BTR homes. Our role is to provide leadership and support to our members as they add value to this dynamic sector.
